

IN SOCIETY'S REALM

Once more do we welcome June, beautiful June, the month of sunshine and roses; June, scattering her flowers here and there, proclaiming that summer is come with all of her attractiveness and charm. In the trees, now covered with their brilliant foliage, do the birds warble merrily, singing in their happiness that summer has returned. The month which the sweet girl graduate, herself a June rose, claims as her own. Happy school days—the spring-time of life—have almost ended and the duties of the summer are eagerly anticipated. The summer days, which they will spend wandering about the mountain paths or down the sandy beach. But the debutante is not the only one who is looking forward to these strolls and her older sister, who knows their pleasure, smiles with delight at the thoughts of what is in store for her. June brings love and orange blossoms, and merrily do the wedding bells peal forth their song.

The summer resorts now offer the usual attractions, for on Thursday, Old Point, Virginia Beach and Ocean View threw open the doors of their hotels for the accommodation of their summer guests, and the people of Norfolk are looking forward to many pleasant days and evenings spent where the wild waves beat upon the shore.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the party given by Mr. R. Lancaster Williams, of Richmond, in honor of Miss Bessie Doyle. The party, consisting of Mr. Walter Doyle, Miss Bessie Doyle, Miss Susie Reid, Miss Lucy Brooke, Miss Margaret Taylor, Miss Alice Kelly, Mr. Garnett Jordan, Mr. George Sargent, Mr. Washington Taylor, Mr. Walke Truxton, Mr. W. Hunter Bell, Mr. Thomas W. Shelton and Mr. R. L. Williams, boarded a Lambert's Point car at 8 o'clock and a short while after were gaily dancing the hours away. A delightful supper was served and was a most important feature of the evening. This event was indeed a charming one and, despite the storm which raged, was a great success.

At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Dandridge Burwell, a party was given at the Virginia Beach on Monday evening, June 4, at 6 o'clock. The party left at 6 o'clock and sailed to Craney Island and back under a fair breeze. On their return the party adjourned to the home of the Misses Reed on York street, where a charming supper awaited them. Those who enjoyed this happy party were Mrs. J. T. S. Reed, Miss Miller, Miss Mary Belle White, Misses Ruby, Margaret, Kyle and Lula Reed, Mr. Jas. Reed, Mr. Barnett, Mr. W. A. 2nd, Mr. J. P. Turner and Mr. S. A. Woodward.

The Misses Reed gave a very delightful sailing party on Monday afternoon in honor of their guest, Miss Barnett Miller, of Columbia, S. C. The party left at 6 o'clock and sailed to Craney Island and back under a fair breeze. On their return the party adjourned to the home of the Misses Reed on York street, where a charming supper awaited them. Those who enjoyed this happy party were Mrs. J. T. S. Reed, Miss Miller, Miss Mary Belle White, Misses Ruby, Margaret, Kyle and Lula Reed, Mr. Jas. Reed, Mr. Barnett, Mr. W. A. 2nd, Mr. J. P. Turner and Mr. S. A. Woodward.

Invitations have been received in Norfolk to the marriage of Miss Martha Hampton Turner to Mr. William Lattimore Cooke. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, June 14th, at 9 o'clock at the Thirtieth Street Christian Church in Newport News. Miss Turner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Madison Turner, of that city.

Miss Elizabeth Doyle has returned from Georgetown, where she has been attending the convent.

Miss Susie Strachin, of Petersburg, is the guest of Miss Linnie Pannill, at Virginia Beach.

Miss Minnie Boykin, of Smithfield, is the guest of Miss Margaret Old, on Freemason street.

Miss Louise Mayo, who has been the guest of Miss Minnie Baker, in Ghent, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Mr. M. A. Agelasto will leave shortly for Dallas, Tex., where he will in future make his home. He is the regret of the many friends he possesses in Norfolk.

Miss Rachael Cooke, of Richmond, came Saturday to be the guest of the Misses Nash, on Freemason street.

Miss Mamie Randolph, of Richmond, who has been the guest of her cousins, the Misses Randolph, on Freemason street, has returned home.

Mrs. McBee, Miss Rosa McBee and Miss Sawyer have returned after a pleasant week's stay in New York.

Mrs. Roland Curtin left last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Hammeley, in New York.

Mrs. DuBarry and Miss Louise DuBarry have returned after an extensive tour through California and the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert de Jarnette have moved to their cottage at Virginia Beach for the summer months.

Mrs. George M. Pollard has opened her cottage at the Beach for the summer.

Miss Hallie Cooke, who is the guest of Misses Elizabeth and Mary Nash, on Freemason street, will return to her home in Richmond to-morrow.

Misses Julia and Pink Ward, and Mrs. F. L. Sandoz have returned from the Beach, where they have been spending the month of May.

Miss Octavia Willis is at home again after a delightful visit to friends on the Eastern Shore.

Miss Aileen McNair, of Baltimore, in visiting her sister, Miss Madge McNair, on Boush street.

Miss Mary Williams is at home again after a two months' visit to relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Jean Hinton, of Petersburg, is the guest of Mrs. Charters, on College Place.

Commander and Mrs. Smith and Misses Sophia and Edna Smith left on Thursday for their new home in the Brooklyn navy yard, where Mr. Smith now has duty, much to the sorrow of
